The News.

The Kansas question is now fairly before Congress. The President has sent in the Lecompton Swindle with his official endorsement, and this outrageous and confessed fraud is henceforth to be the test of Democratic orthodoxy. Of course, there are many Northern Democrats who refuse to submit to the yoke, but the majority yield.

A destructive fire occurred at Detroit yesterday morning, consuming property to the value of $500,000 to $100,000.

We copy from our New York exchanges some interesting particulars of the latest "revolution" in Mexico. It seems likely to result in the temporary restoration of Santa Anna.

The proceedings of the Military Convention, which met at Madison on the 3d instant, will be found in this morning's paper. The Convention was very well attended and its action harmonious.

No marked change in the produce Markets East or West, yesterday.

Winter seems to have set in with February; the weather being cold and clear.

Washington Correspondence.

From the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Feb. 2.

The great battle has fairly begun in Congress. The President's Message caused intense excitement in both Houses. In the Senate it was denounced by Mr. Trumbull in a powerful speech, and in the House was received with exclamation of indignation and contempt from the Republican and Douglas Democrats.

Its atrocious perversion of the facts in the history of Kansas, and its utter Pro-Slavery tone, have had a good effect upon the Northern wavereers. The Administration side was repeatedly beaten upon the motion to adjourn, which was a test vote, the opposition desiring to enable Mr. Harris, of Illinois, a Douglas Democrat, to move the reference of the Message to a select Committee of 13. Mr. Hughes of Indiana made a speech in favor of Lecompton. Mr. Grow, of Pennsylvania, has the floor for to-morrow, and the prospect of affairs is decidedly better than it has been for a year past.

Mr. Sumner has been telegraphed to come on at once. So has Mr. Davis, member of the House from Massachusetts. Every Northern man should be at his post.

Yesterday a deputation consisting of Messrs. Clay of Kentucky, Cox of Ohio, and Hasklin of New York (all Democrats,) waited upon President Buchanan for the purpose of remonstrating against the passage of the Lecompton Constitution. Mr. Buchanan told them that it was too late; his message was ready to send in, and he should not alter it. Lecompton must go through. Mr. Clay is not fully committed to either side. Mr. Hasklin is anti-Lecompton. Mr. Cox has already declared himself anti-Lecompton.

Kansas.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 4.—The General Assembly have passed resolutions instructing Senators and others from this State to vote against the Lecompton Constitution.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 4.—The Kansas Resolutions denouncing the Lecompton Constitution, passed the House to-day by a vote of 31 to 17.—The negative votes were all Democrats. In the afternoon a resolution highly approving the character and statesmanship of James Buchanan, and confidence in his Administration, passed by a vote of 31 to 21, the Democrats all voting in the affirmative.

The New Jersey "Democrats" seem to be playing "fast and loose." In one breath they denounce Lecompton; in the next, they endorse BUCHANAN. But BUCHANAN and LECOMPTON are "one and indivisible." President BUCHANAN has made Lecompton the party test. No man is a "Democrat," who does not swear by both.

☞ Senator Greulich and the Milwaukee Seebote, are after Senator Martin with sharp sticks. Senator Greulich calls on Mr. Martin's German constituents to treasure up vengeance against him.—Madison Jounanal.

What has Senator MARTIN done, to excite the ire of Mr. GREULICH and the Seebote? We have always supposed that he was not only a reliable Democrat, but an experienced Legislator and an honest man.

MILITARY APPOINTMENT.—Gov. Randall commissioned on yesterday, Thomas Stephens, of Iowa County, as Inspector General of the Militia of the State of Wisconsin.—Madison Journal.

General STEPHENS was the late incumbent of this Office and his re-appointment, while it will gratify a large circle of friends, is a proper tribute to an accomplished soldier and a true man.

Crittenden on Mason-Old Kalmuck Aroused.

Correspondence of the Chicago Daily Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

The manliness and vigor of the old Whig party in its best days shone out in Crittenden's speech yesterday, on Minnesota. The fountain which had so long ceased to flow, burst forth in jets of purest crystal. His reply to the wretched incendiary Mason, who had not scrupled to avow that he would vote against Minnesota or any new State, until Kansas, with her sham Constitution was admitted, was magnificent. It extracted from the galleries loud applause, twice repeated. Crittenden rebuked the contemptible threats which came exclusively from the Southern side, against the Union, in a style very similar to Mr. Clay's; and it had the same effect. It brought down the house. These incidents are of no particular value, but they show the weakness of the South of that sectional fanaticism which is always shrieking against the Union. It excites disgust there as well as apprehension and dislike among sensible men at the North. There is not much loyalty to the Union at the South, but there is mortal fear of disunion.

THE WISCONSIN STATE STOCK BANK.—The Madison Journal furnishes us the following information in regard to the Wisconsin State Stock Bank, of which something has been said in the Michigan papers:

"The State Stock Bank is located at Eau Claire, in this State. It was established Dec. 1st, 1857, by Oliver C. Perrin, of Rochester, N. Y. Its circulation is $25,000. Mr. Perrin has recently removed to Marshal, Michigan, and this has probably given rise to the report respecting the location of this Bank."

This Bank has been organized since the Report the Bank Comptroller of Jan. 4th.

MILITARY CONVENTION.

MADISON, Feb. 3d, '57, }
2½ o'clock P. M. }

Major Woodward reported, from a committee appointed at the Convention in Milwaukee last October, a bill, which the committee recommended to the Convention, to be approved by it, as a proper measure to pass the Legislature of the State and become a law. The bill was a transcript of the Connecticut Militia Law, and was read at length.

On motion of Gen. Roth, the report was adopted.

Gen. King, from the committee on resolutions, reported the following:

Resolved, That we respectfully recommend to the Legislature of this State the importance of a more efficient organization of the Militia, with a view, especially, to secure to this State its fair proportion of the arms annually distributed by the United States, and the encouragement of volunteer uniformed Companies, armed, equipped and disciplined according to the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the U. S Army.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be, and they are hereby presented to the Honorable, the Assembly of this State, for the courtesy extended to us in granting us the use of their hall for the purposes of this Convention.

Resolved, That our thanks be also tendered to the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad Company, for their liberality in conveying members of the Convention to and from Madison, free of charge.

Resolved, That the hospitalities extended to us by the authorities and citizens of Madison are deserving of our hearty acknowledgments.

Adopted.

Major Woodward made a statement in regard to the provisions of the bill providing for the compensation of those doing military duty. The bill proposed to pay for such service out of the State Treasury.

Gen. McMunnan made an eloquent speech in favor of the general principle of appropriations from the State Treasury to military men. He referred to the twenty years service he had seen. If each man in the State would "throw his mite into the vortex," it would amount to but a trifle to support the military. It was no use, gentlemen, he might go on and paint the armies of Europe, and beautify his language, but there must be a different system. He saw Gen. King here to-day, as a private soldier with his musket, peraderative as the atmospheric influence might be (cheers), while there were others adorned and plumed, himself among the rest, (great cheers.) If an enemy had attacked us where would we have been? Brigham Young might overthrow the State almost any day.

Capt. Horn said this compensation would be the sticking point with the Legislature. It only provided for pay for about six days. He urged the propriety of the measure in a brief and pointed speech.

Gen. King, being called upon, concurred with Capt. Horn, and thought it no more than proper that compensation should be allowed for the time actually spent by military companies.

Capt. O'Neil concurred. A large proportion of the companies in Milwaukee were composed of laboring men, and as a tax-payer he would cheerfully contribute his proportion to remunerate them.

Capt. Silverman spoke in favor of the proposition. He had been captain of the Union Guards at Port Washington several years, and called the office worth about $2,000—not in cash but honor. He referred to the lynching of De Bar, and thought that no such outrage would have occurred had there been a proper military law in the State.

Col. Steever passed a high eulogy upon the military discipline at West Point, and referred to its results in the Mexican War. He further alluded to the importance of military organization generally. He did not apprehend any immediate danger from Brigham Young, however, and thought if he should attempt to invade our State, there would be so many of the other sex mixed in his troops that no man would refuse to do military duty. (Laughter and Cheers.)

He moved that Gen. Stevens be requested to give an exhibition of the art of self-defence in this Hall this evening.

Adopted.

Col. Steever then moved that the bill and resolutions be placed in the hands of the Committee on Militia in the Legislature.

Adopted.

On motion of Gen. Roth, a Committee of three was appointed to deliver Col. Stevens' resolution to the the Legislature. Gen. Roth, Col. Steever and General Stevens were appointed such Committee.

Capt. Clark, of Kenosha, was called on, and addressed the Convention, detailing some of his experiences in the Mexican war, and closed with urging the passage of the bill by the Legislature.

Lieut. Horne was called on, but declined speaking.

Capt. Hobbaber was called on, but excused himself from speaking on the ground of hoarseness.

Captain Hass concurred in what had been said.

Gen. Roth moved that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at this place this evening.—There was to be a parade at 4 o'clock, and the troops would be reviewed by the Governor.

Adopted.

Col. Hart urged the necessity of an immediate passage of the bill by the Legislature, as by the law that had recently gone into effect, there were no commissioned officers in the State.

Mr. Steever said that nearly every other class had spoken. Let us now hear from one of the Indian fighters.

Col. Bracken (being loudly called for), arose and addressed the Convention, briefly assuring them of his sympathy, and promising as a member of the Legislature, to use his efforts to forward their aims.

Lieut. O'Brien was called on and addressed the Convention on the importance of the objects sought to be furthered by it. He believed that the action of the Legislature would fully meet his most sanguine expectations.

Capt. O'Neil called on Senator Cook for his views.

Mr. Cook, in response, said that the recommendation of the Governor in his Message would have his heartiest support. Whatever measure, in furtherance of the aims of Convention, that was constitutional and expedient, he would support. He had for some years served as a high private under that intelligent statesman, Wm. H. Seward. This was many years ago, and he then became convinced of the importance of a military education; that education could be obtained in the militia, by calling them out five or six days in a year.

Lt. Woodward spoke of the importance of educating the citizen soldiery, which, after all, was the great dependence of the country in time of war.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

Gen. Grant in the chair.

Gen. Stevens, after making a few remarks, proceeded to give an exhibition of sword exercise. He first gave the cavalry exercise in three divisions, describing at the same time the different causes and effects of parries, thrusts and cuts. He was repeatedly encored during this exhibition. He stated that he had not had any practice of this kind since 1846. We could not perceive, however, any want of agility in the General. He then gave the Infantry practice which was no less interesting. He regretted that there was no officer present to take a test with him.—Gen. McMunnan was called upon. Capt. Horn then announced to the convention that Gen. McMannan would go through the exercise with Gen. Stevens.

Gen. McMannan (very indignant)—Whoever has asserted that I was willing to take a tilt with my friend Gen. Stevens, I will take a tilt with at any time he may name. (Prolonged applause.)

Capt. Horn—It is all right Mr. Chairman, I do not wish to take a tilt with Gen. McMannan and will therefore cave.

The chairman stated that there was no business before the convention.

Sergeant De Vaney was called upon for a speech, but not being in the room, Senator Chase was called upon and then addressed the convention in a few neat and appropriate remarks, assuring the convention that he was in favor of a military organization.

Mr. Sutherland was then called for and also made a few remarks. He was in favor of a military organization and should vote for one. He believed that training made a man more brave, generous and noble.

Senator Clark was then called upon and responded. He had not the honor to appear before the convention with any military title, but he believed that he was from fighting stock and had associated more or less with military men.—He was also in favor of the bill now before the Legislature. He thought that one roll of the drum, one blast of the trumpet, would cause more enthusiasm than the eloquence of any man in the State.

Senator Boyd was then called upon and addressed the convention. He had not had a military education. He was a Major General on paper. He had once risen to the position of Adjutant in the 129th Regiment of the Militia of N. Y., and had on several occasions made terrible onslaughts on water melons, ginger bread and cider. He thought that there should be some kind of a military organization, and that the military should be paid for it. The great question was, how to raise the ways and means, to pay them. He thought that "in time of peace we should prepare for war." He thought that the government should protect its citizens wherever they were and should be prepared to do so. He would do everything in his power to help this bill.

Mr. Worthington was called up and made a few remarks. He had been very much interested in the exhibition of Gen. Stevens. He had noticed the just indignation of Gen. McMunman; the noble spirit with which that gentleman was suffused when he thought himself insulted, and he had also noticed the noble generosity and true military spirit evinced by that gentleman and Capt. Horn in making up their little dispute. (Applause.) He then stated that he was in favor of a just bill for the organization of the militia.

Mr. Vinton was called out, and made a forcible and eloquent speech.

Senator Wheeler then being called for, responded in a few remarks. Was not in favor of a standing army—thought that the people should rely on the citizen soldiery. He thought that the habits of officers of the regular army tended to despotism, which was antagonistic to a republican form of government. He knew very little of the bill before the Legislature—was willing to lend his assistance to any bill that, while it did not overwhelm us with taxation, would render our citizen soldiery more effective and useful.

Senator Cook was called upon and replied, that he believed that it was customary in military life, when a person was an inv lid, to appoint a substitute; he would therefore appoint as his substitute, Capt. Bragg. (Calls of more grape Captain Bragg) Capt. Bragg then made a few remarks.

H. H. Gray being called for, addressed the convention briefly. Major Woodward of the Light Guard, was called for, and responded in an able and effective speech.

Col. Gunnison was called on, and made a few business remarks, as he termed them.

Capt. Horn moved that the proceedings be published in the daily papers. Adopted.

After returning thanks to the officers the Convention adjourned.—Madison Journal.

HANDSOME PRESENT TO A RAILROAD MAN.—The employees of the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. Co., have presented the efficient and gentlemanly ex-Assistant Superintendent of the road Walter Kittredge, Esq., with an elegant mahogony writing desk, and all the appropriate fixtures thereto, as a token of their feelings of esteem and respect for him. The desk, which was purchased of Messrs. Strickland & Co., is a very handsome piece of workmanship. Upon the front of it is a silver plate with the following inscription:

PRESENTED TO WALTER KITTREDGE,

By the Employees of the La Crosse & M. R. R.

Accompanying the present was the following note:

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 4, '58.

WALTER KITTREDGE, ESQ.:

Dear Sir—The undersigned employees of the La Crosse & Mil. R. R. Co., believing that in all our past business relations you have ever acted from impartial and just motives, and for the mutual interests of the Company, and those employed under you, wish to present to you the accompanying writing-desk and contents, which you will please accept as a slight token of the feelings of esteem and respect, we shall ever cherish towards you as a kind employer and a thorough business man. That you may prosper in whatever pursuits you may hereafter engage, is the sincere wish of MANY EMPLOYEES OF THE L. C. & M. R. R.

Upon examining the contents of the desk after the presentation, Mr. Kittredge was greatly surprised to find the handsome sum of $150 in gold, carefully done up in a remote drawer, with the respects of the donors, by way of a more substantial token of their good will towards him.—The desk and contents is valued at $250.

Mr. Kittredge is an estimable gentleman, and while connected with the La Grosse road, he not only won the respect of those who were employed under him, but the esteem of all who have had any dealings with him.

THE LIGHT GUARD AT MADISON.—The Madison Patriot, referring to the Military Convention at Madison, and the delegation there present, from the Milwaukee Light Guard, says:

On Wednesday morning Company A of the Milwaukee Light Guards turned out in marching order, and proceeded in fine style to the State House, headed by their excellent band, where they were severally introduced to Gov. Randall in the Executive Chamber, and went through some skillful movements with their muskets in a trained and perfect manner. This company of the Milwaukee Light Guards, in their appearance, evolutions and general deportment, are not only a credit to the State, but would also be a worthy addition to a crack infantry regiment of any country.

* * * * * * *

The light hearted conviviality of noble spirits, the gay and elegant military attire, and the bursts of swelling music which yesterday resounded through the streets of our beautiful city, all conspired to make the citizens feel proud of their courteous visitors from Milwaukee and other places.

A LIVELY SCENE.—The river, north and south of Spring street bridge presented a lively scene yesterday afternoon. Men and boys were on the ice as thick as bees in a hive, having a glorious skate, and crowds were gathered on the bridge looking on. The ice continues in capital skating order, and as people are not overrun with business, just now, they readily embrace the opportunity to have a little fun when it can be had so cheap. Among the hosts on the river yesterday, were quite a number of East Water street merchants, and among the rest, we noticed a ministerial gentleman, apparently enjoying the sport with as keen a relish as the veriest boy in the crowd. Go it while you can, boys!

☞ All persons friendly to the objects of the "Milwaukee Cosmopolitan Society," are invited to meet at Treat's Hall, on Sunday, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when an opportunity will be presented to become members of the same.

DEFRAUDING HIS EMPLOYERS.—A man named Edward Markwitz, foreman of the Badger State Safe works of Berliner & Bruno, was arrested yesterday, on a charge of defrauding his employers of a large amount of money. He has been in their employ for several years, and they had entrusted him to pay off the workmen every week It seems that he has been in the habit for a year back, of bringing a bill to the office with the name of each workman, the number days which each one had worked, and the amounts due them. Some of the men would often work but two or three days in the week, and he would pay them accordingly, but bring in the bill for the full amount to the proprietors, and pocket the balance. It was discovered by comparing the foreman's bill with the memorandum books of the workmen, and it was found that he had made a practice of doing this for upwards of a year.—Markwitz was taken before the police court yesterday, but he waived an examination, and gave bail for his appearance before the Circuit Court.

POLICE COURT.—The case of Lewis Brainard, charged with being disorderly, was continued to the 6th.

Michael Coughlin, for resisting an officer, was fined $15 and costs.

Patrick Hurly, charged with being disorderly, case continued to to-day.

Jacob Heeb and Lawrence Heeb, charged with perjury, waived an examination, and recognized in $500 each for their appearance before the Circuit Court.

Edward Markwitz, charged with larceny from Berliner & Bruno, waived an examination, and recognized in $500 to await the action of the Grand Jury.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FRUIT GROWERS ASSOCIATION.—The Annual Meeting of the Wisconsin Fruit Growers Association will be held at the Newhall House, on Tuesday next, at 9 o'clock A. M. Those interested in the objects of the Association are invited to attend, and to bring specimens of fruits. At the meeting, action will be taken to procure the passage of a law to protect fruit and fruit trees, and trees planted for shade or ornament.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR JANUARY.—We have received the January number of this excellent magazine. It contains, as usual, a number of capital articles. LEONARD SCOTT & & Co., New York, the American publishers, furnish Blackwood, with any one of the four British Quarterlies, for $5 a year, and with the four reviews for $10. The periodicals are among the cheapest and most valuable literary productions of the day, containing a larger amount of practical information, and entertaining reading matter.

FINE WINTER WEATHER.—Yesterday and the day previous were the very perfection of beautiful winter weather. The air was bracing and the sun was unobscured by a single cloud. Although cold, compared to the weather which we have had thus far this winter, yet everybody seems to enjoy it, and all that we can wish is that it may continue so for at least a month.

THE OPERA OF "NORMA."—On Monday evening next, our Musical Society, at the special request of many citizens, repeat the Opera of "Norma." It is only necessary to mention the fact, to ensure a crowded audience. The Opera will be admirably rendered.

SERVICES IN THE FRENCH LANGUAGE.—We are requested to state that the Rev. Mr. Pedelupe, City Missionary, will officiate, as usual, to-morrow (Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at his room near the corner of Tamarack and East Water Streets. The services will be conducted in the French language.

CUTTING ICE.—The past three or four days have been cold enough to make ice fast. The quality of that formed in the river is superior. It is nearly six inches thick and clear as crystal.—The ice-dealers will commence cutting to-day.—They hope to lay in a full stock.

MASONIC.—The Wisconsin Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons, elected at its late session in this city: Henry L. Palmer, M. E. G. H. P.; John Buller, D. G. H. P.; Col. H. M. Billings, G. K.; A. J. Bedburn, G. S.; J. H. Rountree, G. Treasurer; John W. Hunt, G. Secretary.

☞ Country Merchants visiting our city can find the location of the principal Wholesale Houses and Manufacturing Establishments, by viewing the Business directory column of this paper.

RACINE CITY DIRECTORY AND BUSINESS MIRROR FOR 1858.—This work will contain the names and address of the citizens, a Business Directory, City Record and Almanac, together with an Appendix, which will embrace a variety of useful and authentic information.

The compilers of the book, Messrs. Smith, Du Moulin & Co., of Milwaukee, are now in our City with an efficient number of gentlemen canvassers, who are stopping at the Baker House.

Our citizens generally, and business men particular, have long felt the necessity of a Directory of Racine, and we hope will take pleasure in rendering them all the assistance in their power to lessen the difficulties attendant on the laborious task they have undertaken. We understand the gentlemen were formerly engaged in the same business in New York City, and their mode of canvassing is, from what we can judge, the only true and reliable way of collecting the necessary information.

From our personal acquaintence with the compilers, we take pleasure in recommending them to the public, and we feel fully convinced that they will reflect credit on our city, and give entire satisfaction.

Advertisements will be inserted of the principal business houses, &c., on colored pages (with suitable cuts when desired) at a moderate demand.—Racine Journal.

Late and Important from Europe.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

The Southern mail brings dates from all points as late as Dec.

The ship Snow Squall, which has arrived at New Orleans, brings Rio Janeiro dates of Dec. 24 h

The financial crisis was beginning to seriously affect business, and the panic was similar to that in Europe.

The Bank of Brazil was discounting to the extent of its ability. Loud calls were made daily upon the Government for assistance, from which it would appear that a suspension of the Bank charter was contemplated.

Business of all kinds was at a stand still, especially in coffee.

The principal export buyers demand a reduction of 400 or 500 rais; holders more firm—fruits dull; 146 vessels in port, mostly idle, including 40 American. The U. S. sloop Falmouth was in port.

SLIGHTLY MISTAKEN.—The Appleton Crescent says that a successor to Associate Justice Smith of the Supreme Court, is to be elected at the April election, next spring. This is a mistake. Judge Smith's term does not expire until the 1st of January, 1860, and no election of a Judge of the Supreme Court occurs until the spring of 1859.

The Crescent suggest the name of Wm. Pitt Lynde, Esq., of Milwaukee, as a proper man to succeed Judge Smith. While we entertain the highest respect for Mr. Lynde, we can assure the Crescent that if Judge Smith will consent to be a candidate for re-election, no other man can probably be elected in this State.—Madison Journal.

A NEW STYLE.—The States in describing the costumes at the last President's reception, says: "Several of the belles wore their hair dressed with flowers a la Ophelia, the drooping flowers and tendrils giving a becoming effect to their profiles."

THE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE HARBOR MATTERS.—We are quite as anxious as our neighbors are, to have the people examine the Harbor Improvement, and would favor as strongly as any one, the proposition that they investigate the cost of it, and expose the extravagance and corruption of the city officers, if they find them guilty; but we do not favor the employment of citizens to perform the duties of the Common Council. We want the Mayor and Aldermen to act upon their own responsibility, and not upon the report of a committee of citizens. —News.

The report of "a committee of citizens" could not discharge the Mayor and Aldermen from their official responsibility. They would be obliged to act upon that, in any event. The object of the proposed investigation is to satisfy Tax-payers. The Mayor and Aldermen, through the Harbor Committee, have investigated matters, and are doubtless prepared to act. But the report of the Harbor Committee, though apparently satisfactory to the News and the Council, is not so to the public. The popular impression is, that it is neither lawful, nor reliable. Hence the desire of a further investigation by a Committee of citizens, competent to the task. If matters are all right, such an investigation will redound to the credit of the Council and the contractors, and will reconcile Tax-payers to the payment of the large sum still claimed as due.—It will, too, afford a substantial ground for applying to Congress to re-imburse the city for the amount expended on the work. On the other hand, if matters are wrong, the People should know it. Hence the propriety of the proposed investigation.

Consul to Glasgow.

It will be seen by referring to our telegraph column that Geo. Vail, Ex-Congressman of New Jersey, has been confirmed as Consul to Glasgow. It had been hoped by the numerous friends of Col. Hart, in this State, that he would have been offered this appointment. His intimate knowledge of the manner in which business is transacted, in all the leading Cities of Europe, would make him a most valuable officer.—News of Saturday.

We concur with the News in its opinion as to Col. HART'S fitness for the office named, but we understand that he was not a candidate for that particular appointment. He has been strongly recommended to the President, by leading democrats in this State, for some Federal office, and will, we hope, obtain one.

USURPATION SUSTAINING USURPATION.—The Indiana Senators hold their seats by the grossest usurpation. Chosen by a minority of the Legislature of Indiana at an unauthorized meeting, they at first expected to hold their seats only until that Legislature adjourned, when the trick was to be consummated by obtaining an appointment from the Governor. The latter scheme was found to be still more illegal than the original one, and the majority of the Senate being unwilling to connive at the usurpation, they yet remain in the Senate to vote in favor of Lecompton.

MODERN DEMOCRACY.—The Washington Union is the central organ, and its leading editorials are supposed to be suggested or dictated by the President and the members of the Cabinet. Its Democracy bears the stamp of authority, and here are specimens of it, taken at random, from the leader of January 22: "the brute power of the majority!"—"the ballot-box of the mob.—"Away, then, with the demagogue appeals for the 'will of the majority,' with which the country is now rife."

☞The investigation of the Middlesex case, now in progress, show that Hon. N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts, actually received from the Middlesex Company the nice little sum of $7,000 while he was Speaker of the House of Representatives, and while an important measure, in which the Company was interested, was pending in Congress.—Janesville Standard.

Nothing of the sort has been shown by this investigation. On the contrary, the telegraphic invention about Speaker Banks borrowing $7,000 from Lawrence, Stone & Co., is positively contradicted by Mr. STONE himself.

MINNESOTA BEFORE THE SENATE.—On Monday Douglas moved in the Senate for the admission of Minnesota into the Union. Half a dozen Southern Senators opposed it, and several Republicans, with Crittendon, American, favored the motion. The debate was fierce and exciting. Mason, of Va., threatened a dissolution of the Union if the Kansas fraud was not confirmed.—Wilson and Crittenden replied to him. The debate assumed an exciting character, and much feeling was manifested on both sides. From now forward until the Kansas question is settled, it will be war to the knife, and knife to the hilt.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL DISEASE.—The causes of the malady at the National Hotel at Washington, says an exchange, were fully revealed when the new occupants undertook the operation of cleansing. They found in the enormous cellar decaying and poisonous matter enough of all sorts to have killed an army of men, if subject to its exhalation. There were removed from this part of the house alone, sixty-seven cart loads of putrid stuff; and when it is said that a part of this consisted of the contents of the privy vaults which had overflowed in the cellar from choked up drains, and that the remainder was the refuse of the kitchen and pantry—all in the most offensive condition—no one will be surprised that the National hotel became a pest house.

BARGAIN AND SALE.—A special dispatch to the New York Times says prominent authorities assert that a bargain has been struck between the Administration and the New York Soft leaders at Washington, that on consideration that they are allowed a fair share of the appointments, they will help Lecompton through.

The House of Representatives is now engaged in investigating charges of corruption against Members of the last Congress growing out of the passage of the Tariff Amendment Act. It would be well, we think, for the People's Representatives to investigate also the graver charges of corruption against the present Administration, and to expose the acts and appliances by which votes are to be, or have been purchased for the Lecompton Swindle.

DECLINE OF AGRICULTURE IN NEW YORK STATE. —In accounting for the recent sudden expansions and contractions of credit which produced the suspension of the New York banks, the superintendent at Albany mentions this among other causes: "An examination of the census will show the remarkable fact that no agricultural county in this State (New York) not having within its borders a city or large manufacturing village, has increased in population from 1840 to 1855." To this statement, he says, there is not above one exception.

THREATENED EXPOSURE.—GOVERNOR WISE writes that if President Buchanan's message makes Lecompton the test of party fealty, he will at once publish his threatened expose of the President's duplicity.

Mr. BUCHANAN has made Lecompton the test, and we are curious to see if Gov. WISE will be as good as his word, or whether the Pro-Slavery leaders can effectually "gag him!"

ILLNESS OF EX-PRESIDENT TYLER.—Ex-President TYLER is lying very ill at his residence, "Sherwood Forest," Charles City County, Virginia. He has been suffering for several weeks past with a severe chronic attack.

Lecompton in the Senate.

The latest estimate of the strength, of parties in the Senate on the question of the passage of the Lecompton Swindle gives the administration three majority, with three doubtful, and two absent, viz:

For Lecompton,	30 Democrats.
Against, do	20 Republicans.
Against, do	2 Democrats.
Against, do	4 Americans.
Making	27 Opposition.

The Americans counted on to vote against it are, Bell, of Tennessee, Crittendon and Thompson of Kentucky, and Houston of Kentucky, and the Democrats are, Douglas, Broderick and Stuart. The absentees may be Henderson of Texas, and Bates of Delaware. But one, or both, may be present, which would add to the Administration vote.

Pugh of Ohio, and Jones of Iowa have been instructed to vote against the swindle, but it is understood that they will not regard their instructions. Allen of R. I., has also indicated his intention to pay no heed to the wish of his constituents. Fitch and Bright, the bogus Senators from Indiana, will be kept in their seats, on condition of their supporting the swindle. The Minnesota Senators will be kept out of their seats, until after the vote is taken on Kansas, as it is understood that they would vote against Lecompton.

From this review, it will be seen that the great iniquity will doubtless be dragged through the Senate.—Chicago Tribune.

From the Utah Army.

Some interesting intelligence from the army of Utah is given in the letters of the special correspondent of the New York Tribune.

The correspondent fully confirms the report of the general good condition of the army, which is now increased by the enlistment of a battalion of volunteers, composed mainly of men who went out with the expedition as teamsters.

The troops were all comfortably encamped, the weather has mild, and no peculiar suffering is alluded to.

A letter had been received from Brigham Young, accompanied by a quantity of salt—an article of which the army was at the time in such want that $15 had been paid for a quart.—Young said that his salt was sent either as a gift or for sale, as Col. Johnson might be disposed; but the Colonel sent it back on the ground that the Mormons were traitors and rebels, with whom it was not possible to treat in any peaceful manner.

The letter which Young sent with the salt was pretty well spiced with warlike menace, threatening to retaliate any harm done to the Mormon prisoners with the army upon prisoners in his hands. It is believed, in fact, that Young holds in this capacity no less distinguished a person than Col. Jack Hayes, the Texan Ranger, whom he seized in the Autumn, as he was on his way, in the public service, home from California.

Subsequently to the rejection of Young's salt, a considerable supply was obtained from Indians, who obtained for it the handsome price of $3,50 per pound.

The Territorial Court had been opened by Judge Eckels in one of the log huts of the camp, and had a great deal of business before it, growing out of cases of petty larceny, assault and battery, and the like, among the laborers attached to the expedition.

EXECUTION UPON A DOG.—We don't mean the execution of a dog, but a constable's levy upon a dog, maugre the law which don't recognize dogs as property. The case in point is somewhat amusing. A well-known Third streeter endorsed a note for something less than $100 some time ago. The drawer permitted it to be dishonored. The drawer demanded payment from the endorser. The latter refused payment, and being sued, permitted judgement to be given against him by default, and thereupon execution issued. He laughed at the constable and requested the latter to notify him when he found leviable property belonging to him. The Constable couldn't find any, but one day he saw the defendant racing down Third street with a superb looking Newfoundland dog. Quoth the Constable, "Is that your dog?" "Yes" said the defendant. "What'll you take for him?" "There ain't money enough on this block to buy him," replied the defendant. "Guess I'll levy on him in satisfaction of that judgment," quietly suggested the officer exhibiting the papers. The defendant expostulated, but in vain. The Constable was inexorable and departed with the dog. The defendant was sorely worried and sought the counsel of friends. They advised him to permit the dog to be publicly sold, and employ some friend to bid him in. He acquiesced in the arrangement, but the adverse party heard of it, and assured him if the did, he would be made to "swear" that he had no interest in the dog. Defendant being how fairly cornered, and being loath to lose his pet, which is really a noble animal, shinned it about town, and in the course of the day collected the necessary amount and satisfied all claims against him, and redeemed his dog with evident satisfaction. If defendant had been as sharp as his friends supposed him to be, he could have worried his antagonist a little without endangering either his pet or his pocket.—Cincinnati Commercial.

MODEL RAIL ROAD REPORT.—The following report was presented to the Legislature the other day, a model for brevity:—

Millbury and Southbride Rail Road Company.

The condition of the Company remains as it was at the time of its last annual report.
E. D. AMMIDOWN, Director.

Then E. D. Ammidown made oath that the above statement is true, according to his best knowledge and belief. Before me,

Utah—Negotiation Proposed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

It is reported to me on good authority that Mr. Buchanan contemplates withdrawing the troops from Utah. Dr. Bernhoisel, the Mormon Delegate, has submitted propositions to the Administration indicating the willingness of the Mormons to vacate Utah, and colonize on some of the islands of the sea, outside of the jurisdiction of the United States, provided the Government will purchase at a fair valuation the Salt Lake City improvements. Dr. B. asks that Commissioners be sent out to arrange terms and details. Should these be agreed on, Salt Lake City is to become a grand military station, or depot, for our Western troops.—Cor. Herald.

HEALTH OF HAVANA.—A letter dated Havana, Jan. 25, says:

"I am sorry to inform you that the health of Havana is far from good. Beside, the yellow fever that still lingers among the shipping and the "intermanos," we have been visited by the small-pox of the worst kind. Among the victims are young Count Villianueva, only son of the distinguished Perillos, who for a long time held the office of Intendente, and the wife of Sir Don Lamberto Fernandez. The late norther, however, will, if it only lasts long enough, drive away the disease."

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 4.

The General Assembly have passed resolutions instructing Senators and Representatives from that State to vote against the Lecompton Constitution.

☞The new Mississippi code has the following in relation to the violation of the Sabbath: "If any person shall be found hunting with a gun on the Sabbath, he shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars."

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.

The Havana Diario of the 29th contains a manifesto from Santa Anna, dated Turbaco, New Grenada, in relation to the charges of Gen. Pillow, that money was employed by Gen. Scott for the bribery of the Mexican Commander and authorities. These statements are denied with the usual vehemence and verbosity of the Mexican hero.

THE POTATOR.—Potatoes were first brought to Europe in 1563. After fifty-nine years the potato rot broke out, and after eighty years there was no seed fit for planting to be obtained. In 1696 the Spaniards brought good seed from Peru, which gave healthy tubers for forty-five years. In 1779 the rot so far destroyed the potatoes that no good seed was obtained. In 1797 the English brought new seed to Europe, but it was not till 1802 and 1803 that seed generally spread throughout the continent, and was in a general use. Fifty years later the rot again appeared, and again deceased in 1856. From this it appears that potatoes are liable to suffer this disease every fifty years.

A RICH SCENE IN CHURCH.—One Sunday within the last 100 years, the service had commenced in a country church, a few miles from Penrith, when in walked a woman in a gray cloak, accompanied by two half grown urchins, with eyes and mouth both fearfully agape, and the trio took their seats, in all modesty, near the door. By-and-by the clergyman gave out the text—"Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?" The gray cloak was agitated. The text was energetically repeated, and the minister's eyes seemed cast toward the party seated behind the door. Our friend in gray stood up, and with the voice of a "shepherdess on the Westmoreland Fell," replied to this pointed question—"Please, sir, I be Patty Jones, o' Wetsleddale, an' this is our Bob an' our Peggy, an' we'se ga'an to Feurith to see our Nancy, an' we thowt we'd just come in an' see what ye were macken, an' git a rust."—Carlisle Patriot.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

The Smashing up of the Republic.

(Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald)
MEXICO, Jan. 17, 1858.

Political affairs are rapidly coming to a crisis here. The city to day presents the appearance of a camp, and the various parties are opposing each other with arms in their hands. Comonfort holds the palace with 2,000 men, which is entrenched and strongly fortified from without. The Conservadores have positions in the convents of San Augustin and San Domingo and the citadel, whilst the Puros hold the convent of San Francisco and the Yturbide Hotel.

Ocobos and Morono are said to be on their march to the capital with their predatory bands, to aid the Conservadores, who have declared for Santa Anna; whilst Echeagary from Puebla, and Parrodi from the north, are marching to relieve the liberals. Comonfort and the Puros have united to make common cause against the Santanistas. So far the liberals are the strongest; and if they succeed, Lerdo has already prepared the decrees to make a clean sweep of the clergy and the church property.

The diplomatic corps called on President Comonfort, at the Palace, on the 11th, to offer their pacific services to mediate between him and his enemies, and to save property and loss of life in the city. They found him in military undress, booted and spurred. He thanked them for their offer, but said that he could not accept their mediation for his personal safety; that a battle was the worst that could happen to him, and run he would not. The palace was full of officers and troops, guns unlimbered, ambulances harnessed up, dragoons holding their saddled horses, and infantry making cartridges.

The government troops have occupied the corner house, nearly in front of the American Legation, and the pronunciados are in the convent of San Augustin, which is nearly behind it; and as these gentry are none of them very good marksmen the position of the Legation is rather a dangerous one. Those in the San Augustin have hoisted a mortar to the flat roof of that convent, and are sending their five inch shells promiscuously into the neighborhood. Mr. Forsyth has his colors hoisted at the legation to protect it, and to give the belligerents notice that his house is not to be occupied as a fortress by either party.

The fighting has now been going on for five days, and the Lord only knows when the row will end. It is difficult to conceive a more cowardly mode of warfare. Neither party seems to dream of attacking the other; they content themselves with blazing away at each other from behind walls, and every person is in danger except the combatants. Of course the streets are unsafe, except for the three hours from eight to eleven in the morning, when hostilities are suspended for the purpose of sending the settlers and allowing the towns people to go to market. I believe three hundred resolute men would drive both parties out of the city. Osallos and Miramon have both come in and joined the Santanistas.

Parrodi and Negrete, with troops to reinforce the government and the liberals, are said to be en route. Whatever happens, it seem to me that Comonfort is played out; his vacillation and want of faith will have completely ruined him.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 18, 1858.

Arrest of our Correspondent as a Spy.

I have this moment escaped from prison, where I have been confined for the last six hours, having been arrested on suspicion of being a spy, while taking a walk with a friend through the disaffected part of the city.

Truly we are in a dreadful state of affairs just now. One can only go out at the peril of one's life; and even if you remain in your room you are in constant danger of receiving a bullet through the window or door. This afternoon an armistice of twenty four hours was proclaimed and with a friend I availed myself of the opportunity to take a walk—a luxury we have not been able to indulge in for many days—which resulted most unexpectedly in our being arrested and thrust into a beastly prison, through the door of which we had the pleasure of hearing our captors discussing the best mode of operating upon us, in case we should not be able to establish our innocence before the general officer whom he arrived upon his rounds.

Many poor innocent foreigners have been murdered by the rebels under the same circumstances as we were placed in to-night.

Of course, during this state of affairs there is no business doing. Mr. Escandon has left the city for safety.

MEXICO, Jan. 19, '58.

Civil War in the City of Mexico—Fighting in the Streets—How the Mexicans Fight—Perils of Foreigners—Challenge of Comonfort, &c., &c.

Since the departure of the last mail for New Orleans, events of a startling character have transpired in this city. On the 8th inst. the parties opposed to the Comonfort, government assumed a definite position, by making two pronunciamentos, both opposed to the "plan of Tacubaya"—one in favor of the ultra puro party, and the other in favor of Santa Anna. The latter of these was quite unexpected, as the Santa Anna party here is very small indeed, and the opportunity was not lost by parties who felt disposed to circulate reports that it was a deep scheme of Comonfort's to head off the ultra puros. Shortly after the pronunciamientos, on Monday morning, the contending parties were actively engaged in fortifying themselves in many of the churches and other strong positions, and in every way making active preparations for a severe fight. Having secured their various positions, a firing of musketry took place at once, without, however, doing much injury.

This was sufficient, though, to show that the pronunciados by no means intended to give up their point without fighting; and as they were very numerous, and held strong positions, it was clear that a protracted and severe struggle must ensue. The residents of the city were to be seen conversing in knots at the street corners, devising methods of protecting their lives and property during the disturbance. The shops and places of business were all closed, and really the city presented a most wretched appearance.—During the early part of the week the two contending parties were more engaged in fortifying their various positions than in active hostilities, although during the whole time stray shots were being fired from various points, many of which took effect on peaceable citizens while engaged in taking precautions for the protection of their property.

On Thursday, however, the works of fortification having been sufficiently completed, and after several ineffectual attempts had been made to arrange matters peaceably, a tremendous fire commenced from the top of the Convent of San Augustin—a stronghold of the pronunciados. It was well returned by the government troops, who marched up in a column and took possession of a building in the vicinity of the convent. The firing having once commenced in earnest, it was generally taken up by the other positions of both parties, and continued without intermission for many hours; but, strange to say, after so much firing, we only heard of about fifty men being killed on this day. This, however, is an art peculiarly Mexican. Four or five thousand men can be actively engaged firing upon one another all day without killing more than a dozen on both sides.

The firing was continued at intervals until Saturday evening, when an armistice of 48 hours was proclaimed to allow non-combatants to leave the city, and to give a further opportunity for a peaceful settlement of the affair. But matters had gone too far—the preparations of both parties were too complete to allow them to settle matters amicably; and, consequently, as soon as ever the time of the armistice had expired, the firing commenced just as brisk as ever, and continued till a late hour last night. We notice, however, that the reports of cannon are much more frequent than they were before, and must expect that more injury will be done, and the destruction of lives and property be much greater than in the early part of the week, when they confined themselves almost entirely to musketry.

On the whole, the condition of the city and the feelings of the contending parties bid fair for a siege which may last a long time, and will certainly be hotly contested. The positions of the belligerents to-day is as follows: The Government forces hold the Palace with 2,000 men horse and foot; the Convent of San Francisco, and the Mineria, with 800 men, and several other churches, with small forces in each. The pronunciados hold the citadel, with 2,500 men; the Convent of San Augustin, with 300 to 400 men; the Convent of San Domingo, with 600 men; and the Custom House and several churches, with small forces. Besides these fortified points, the streets are all barricaded, and breastworks of sand bags thrown up at many places, with 24 pounders placed at most of the barricades. Altogether the preparations are so extensive, it appeared to us, while we took a walk through the various positions yesterday, during the truce, that if all the guns were brought into service at once, and both parties went at it with a will, the whole city would be in ruins in a few hours. But there is no danger of such a thing occurring. It is not the Mexican style of doing business. It is truly astonishing and amusing to witness their mode of fighting. Nobody except the men immediately connected with the guns remain in the streets, and they would not do so if it were possible to get the guns up to the top of a house, or into a church steeple. All the others get on the tops of the houses, or in the steeples of churches, and fire away at one another incessantly, but at such distances that their shots are hardly ever effective. In this manner they can manage to keep up a tremendous fire many days without killing many men, except the poor unfortunate citizens who are impradent enough to go into the streets during the firing, whether for business or pleasure.

The casualties among the latter have been quite heavy during the last few days; but a decree has been published now which will do much to avoid this difficulty. It is to the effect that there will be, during the hostilities, an armistice of three hours every morning, to enable people to provide their marketing and other necessaries of life without danger. This is a very comfortable arrangement, and is quite an improvement on the system pursued in other parts.

Most of the families have left the city, and hardly any one remains who is a non-combatant, except those who have property to defend, which might be sacked. Some few foreigners have been killed by accident, in consequence of being in the streets during the firing, and a few dreadful outrages have been committed by the soldiery of the pronunciados.

It is generally understood—although we have no official information to the effect—that Comonfort has resigned the Presidency in favor of Senor Juarez, and had taken his post as Commander-in-Chief of the army.

Government reinforcements are said to be on the road, and are expected to arrive soon, but the reports are doubtful.

Of course, while the fighting is going on nothing else can be done in the city, and business suffers very much. Comonfort last evening made a proposition to the pronunciados that the contending parties should both go out to a distance of seven leagues from the city, and there quietly fight it out, without disturbing the townsfolk; but his opponents very ungraciously refused his chivalric challenge.

Some of the newspapers have already been obliged to suspend their publication, and if the revolution continues all will have to stop.

WONDERFUL!

ACCIDENT, and various applications have lately developed some very wonderful and pleasing results. One gentleman writes from Albany, N. Y., of very astonishing effects in his case, (given up by all the doctors of that celebrated Capital. Another case just transpiring in Philadelphia, now attracting no little attention together with some others, a statement of which the Dr. is now preparing, will soon turn the tide of inquiry and interest upon my Electric Oil, as was never before directed to a medical discovery. More has already been demonstrated than we dare proclaim; as it would not be half believed. It has afforded immediate relief in many cases of Prolapsus Uteri, and Piles are relieved as if by magic. A gentleman from N. O. came here with his family to have his eyes operated on, having nearly lost them from Neuralgia and Rheumatic affections, has been so relieved as to defer the operation in the confident belief that my Oil will restore him. It has afforded most unexpected relief in the breast and side, attended with cough and sore throat, and it at once relieves the worst kind of running sores, felons, and all painful affections; it thoroughly and promptly cures Rheumatism. John Wyeth, Esq., the well known druggist of Harrisburg, writes June 6th, that John Forbes, of that place, who had suffered great pains about his loins and on one side about the hip, after using Dr. Jayne's remedy a week, then had the aid of a physician some time, who tried him, &c., was cured effectually with one bottle of my Oil. We want you to come, let us examine your case; do not be disheartened, we make no false promises; we are a regular physician, and moreover you don't have to pay a long time for medical advice and then be told you cannot be helped. We make no charge for advice, if we cannot cure you we will tell you so. Come, old and young, with your pains, to No. 39 South Eighth street, three doors below Chestnut.

P. S.—The Oil is pleasant and harmless.

JOHN AND JONATHAN.

At a dinner recently given to CHARLES MACKAY, at Washington, when "our distinguished guest" was toasted, instead of making a speech in reply, he responded in the following appropriate and beautiful poem:

Said brother Jonathan to John:
"You are the elder born,
And I can bear another's hate,
But not your slightest scorn.
You've lived a life of noble strife,
You've made a world your own.
Why, when I follow in your steps,
Receive me with a groan?

"I feel the promptings of my youth,
That urge me evermore
To spread my fame, my race, my name,
From shore to further shore.
I feel the lightnings in my blood,
The thunders in my head,
And I must work my destiny,
Whoever may with land.

"And if you'd give me, brother John,
The sympathy I crave,
And stretch your warm, fraternal hand
Across the Atlantic wave,
I'd give it such a cordial grasp
That earth should start to see,
And ancient crowns and sceptres shake
That fear both you and me."

Said brother John to Jonathan:
"You do my nature wrong;
I never hated, never envied,
But loved you well and long.
If children of the self same sire,
We've quarreled now and then,
'Twas only in our early youth,
And not since we were men.

"And if with cautious, cooler blood,
Result of suffering keen,
I sometimes think you more too fast,
Mistake not what I mean.
I've felt the folly of my youth,
The errors of my prime,
And dreaded for you—my father's son—
A future more sublime.

"And here's my hand, 'tis freely given,
I'st clash it o'er the brine,
And with you from my heart of hearts,
A higher life start mine.
Together let us rule the world—
Together work and thrive;
For if you're only twenty one,
I'm some-dy thirty-five.

"And I have strength for nobler work
Than e'er my hand has done,
The reason to rule and truths to plant
Beyond the rising sun.
Take you the West and I the East,
We'll spread ourselves abroad,
With trade and space, and wholesome laws,
And faith in Man and God.

"Take you the West and I the East!
We speak the self-same tongue
That Milton wrote and Gladstone spoke;
And Burns and Shakspeare sung:
And from our tongue, our hand, our heart
Shall countless blessings flow,
To light two darkened hemispheres
That know not where to go.

"Our Anglo-Saxon name and fame,
Our Anglo Saxon speech
Received their mission straight from Heaven,
To civilize and teach.
So here's my hand, I stretch it forth;
Ye cannot, shall not, look of cold
From this day hence there's friendship for Twixt Jonathan and John!"

They shook their hand, this noble pair,
And o'er the "electric chain"
Came daily messages of Peace
And love betwixt them twain.
When other nations, sore oppressed,
Like dark in sorrow's night,

City Auction Room.

I WANT to purchase twenty thousand to thirty thousand dollars worth of city Goods, in the following way: One quarter cash, balance in good city property; or I will pay all cash if I can agree on prices; or I will exchange good Bonds and Mortgages, or Railroad Stocks, or School Lands. Any one who is in want of trade, and wishes to give up and retire to private life, call on me and I will buy you out. My object is to do good to all, and keep myself at the same time. Or, if any one wants to sell his stock of Goods at auction, I will advance him from one-fourth to one-third it is worth on said Goods. I will advance on all kinds of Goods, Furniture, &c., &c., but said Goods will be sold in ten days after the advance, or to parties on, if they wish, redeem by paying the Commission. All I want is to make money out of money, and keep the balance a rolling. I also want it understood that I am ready to do all auction business entrusted to my care. Or, I would also say that the great stock of Goods which has been selling on the west side of the river, at half price, that I have concluded to keep the store open for thirty days longer. The crowd is so great and the Goods are so cheap that I think I may dare to give all a chance to get great bargains. Recollect it is in the store room formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, on west side of the river. dec22 CALEB WALL.

LESSONS IN Foreign Languages.
MR. AND MRS. L. S. B. DE CHRETY, from PARIS, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their hours being arranged with that view.
Gentlemen and ladies who begin to speak either of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. De Chretien furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.
The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. And in the evening from half past 6 to 8, for conversation.
Mr. DE CHRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, as also lessons in fencing, the use of the Sword, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.
Mr. De Chrety will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 12 pearls old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

TO MERCHANTS.—Mr. DE CHRET will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.
